

REMARKS*I. Status of the Claims:

Claims 1-4, 6-10, 12-15, 18-21, 26-50, 52-57, 59-64, 66, 67, 69, 71-73, 75-85, 87, 92-94, 96, 97 and 99 are pending. The Applicants would like to thank both the Examiner and his Supervisor Mr. Alam Hosain for the interview of February 21, 2007. As reflected herein, the number of claims have been significantly reduced in an effort to facilitate prosecution in this application.

By this Amendment, claims 1, 4, 12, 13, 14, 26-28, 30, 31, 40, 44, 49, 50, 54-57, 59, 60, 63, 64, 72, 77, 93, 94, 96 and 97 have been amended, claims 2, 3, 62, 71, 80-85, 87 and 92 have been canceled without prejudice or disclaimer, and new claims 100-103 have been newly added. No new matter is believed to have been added by this Amendment. Upon entry of this Amendment, claims 1, 4, 6-10, 12-15, 18-21, 26-50, 52-57, 59-63, 64, 66, 67, 69, 72-73, 75-79, 93-94, 96, 97 and 99-103 would be pending.

II. Written Statement of Interview of 2/21/07:

Responsive to the Interview Summary (Paper No. 02212007), the following written statement pursuant to MPEP §713.04 is submitted concerning the substance of the personal interview between Examiner Srirama Channavajjala and Supervisory Examiner Alam Hosain and the undersigned on February 21, 2007.

In the conference, the Examiners and the undersigned had a discussion concerning claims 1, 7, 9 and 12 and Figs. 1-4 of a prior art reference (US 6,567,800 to Barrera et al.), but no agreement was reached. The Applicants, however, greatly appreciated the opportunity for the in-person interview to facilitate prosecution of this application.

III. Obviousness-type Double Patenting Rejection:

Claims 1-4, 6-10, 12-15, 18-21, 26-50, 52-57, 59-64, 66, 67, 69, 71-73, 75-85, 87, 92-94, 96, 97 and 99 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being allegedly unpatentable over the claims of co-pending application nos. 09/938,866 (filed on 8/24/01), 10/116,932 (filed on 4/5/02), 10/117,514 (filed on 4/5/02) which issued as U.S. Patent No. 7,120,641 on October 10, 2006, 10/387,002 (filed on 3/12/03), and 10/387,005 (filed on 3/12/03).

As these obviousness-type double patenting rejections are provisional, the Applicants will address them at an appropriate time when at least one or more claims of the current application are deemed to contain allowable subject matter.

However, as discussed in general during the interview, the Applicants would appreciate re-evaluation of this outstanding rejection in view of the fact that the current application is the earliest filed of these U.S. applications. See MPEP § 804. The Applicants would also appreciate re-evaluation of the outstanding rejection and an explanation or analyses of the differences between each and every claim relied upon in the cited applications and each and every rejected claim and how these differences are obvious. See MPEP § 804 (“Since the analysis employed in an obviousness-type double patenting determination parallels the guidelines for a 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejection, the factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103 are employed when making an obvious-type double patenting analysis.”). Such an analysis would assist the Applicants in better responding to this rejection and the applicability, if any, of In re Karlson, 136 U.S.P.Q. 184 (CCPA 1963) to this case. The Examiner's assistance in this regard would be greatly appreciated.

IV. Rejections Under 35 U.S.C. §§ 102 and 103:

Claims 1-4, 6-10, 12-15, 18-21, 26, 39, 59-64, 66-67, 69, 71-73, 78-79, 93-94, 96-97 and 99 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) in view of Barrera (U.S. Patent No. 6,567,800). Claims 40-50, 52-57 and 75-77 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) in view of Barrera in further view of Sidana (U.S. Patent No. 6,081,829). Claims 80-85, 87, 92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) in view of Himmelstein (U.S. Publ. No. 2001/0011270).

In an effort to facilitate prosecution, claims 80-85, 87 and 92 have been canceled without prejudice or disclaimer, thereby rendering these rejection moot.

Claims 1, 59, 60 and 93, as amended, are directed to arrangements involving acquiring web page data browsed by a browser client when said browser client newly browses the web page data; extracting a keyword from a content of the acquired web page data; assigning a plurality of indices that include a first index unique to the acquired web page data and a second index comprising the extracted keyword to the acquired web page data; and saving the acquired web page data in correspondence with the assigned indices in a predefined database. The saved web page data being sufficient to regenerate at least a portion of a previously browsed web page without accessing to the original source.

Barrera as relied upon in the Office Action does not appear to disclose or suggest any extracting of a keyword from the content of the acquired web page data (browsed by a browser client when said browser client newly browses the web page data) and assigning of an index comprising the extracted keyword, as in claims 1, 59, 60 and 93. Barrera also does not appear to disclose or suggest among other things saving of web page data (browsed by a browser client when said browser client newly browses the web page data) in correspondence with the assigned indices (i.e., the first and second indexes as claimed) in a predefined database in which the saved web page data is sufficient to regenerate at least a portion of a previously browsed web page without accessing to the original source, as in claims 1, 59, 60 and 93. Accordingly, claims 1, 59, 60 and 93 and their dependent claims are believed to be distinguishable over the cited references.

Furthermore, Barrera is also believed to be silent as to various subject matter in the dependent claims. For example, dependent claim 9 further recites creating a new folder for newly browsed data; assigning a predetermined name to the newly browsed data without intervention by a user; and saving the newly browsed data in the new folder with the assigned file name. That is, these operations are performed for newly browsed data and the assigned name is assigned without intervention by a user. Barrera as relied upon in the Office Action does not disclose or suggest the above-noted combination, particularly in the context f the amended independent claims. As such dependent claim 9 and other claims including such feature are believed to be further distinguishable over the cited references.

For example, claim 12 further recites generating a unique file name, to be assigned as the first index, for the newly browsed data without intervention by a user. Barrera as relied upon in the Office Action is silent as to any generation of a “unique” file name for the first index for the newly browsed data, or such occurring without intervention by a user, particularly in the context f the amended independent claims. As such dependent claim 12 and other claims including such feature are believed to be further distinguishable over the cited references.

Further, new claims 100-103 further involve generating the first index which is other than data extracted from the web page data. This aspect also appears to be distinguishable over the cited references, particularly when viewed in the context of the claims as a whole.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing amendments and remarks, the Applicants respectfully request reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejection of claims and allowance of this application.
